

Director

Executive Director

The Department of Children Youth and Families is currently seeking candidates for its 17th Rhode Island Training School Pre-Service Academy

Qualified applicants must possess the minimum qualifications:

21 years or older
Valid drivers license

General statement of duties:

To provide for the care, custody, supervision, and security of the youth detained in the Rhode Island Training School. Duties also include assisting in the rehabilitation, education, treatment of the residents as well as doing related work as required.

Benefits and Salary (upon appointment):

State medical, and life insurance benefits package, salary range from $43,228 – $49,062 paid vacation and sick leave and college reimbursement programs.

Minimum Educational Requirements:

An associate's degree acquired from an accredited college and experience working with adolescent youth.

Application Process:

Qualified applicants must pass a BCI/NCIC, Child Protective Screen, Drug Screen, Interview Boards and Psychological Screen.

All qualified applicants must complete a 3 week Pre-Service Training Academy

Security Procedures
Supervision
Restraint Techniques
Juvenile Rights
Emergency Procedures CPR/AED/First Aid
Interpersonal Communication Skills

Interested parties should submit resume to the address listed below. All resumes must be received by April 4, 2016:

Rhode Island Training School
Attn: Steve Pacheco
57 Power Rd
Cranston RI 02920

Open house and informational sessions will be at the following locations, dates and times:

- Youth Transition Center
790 Broad Street Providence R.I. 02905 1st Floor
March 28th 5pm-6pm
- Youth Transition Center
242 Dexter St. Pawtucket R.I. 02860
March 30th 1pm-2pm
- Rhode Island Training School Youth Development Center
57 Power Rd. Cranston RI 02920
March 31st 3pm-6pm

*Attendance to these informational sessions is not required. A candidate will still be eligible for a position if he/she does not attend an informational session.